

Joy Hermalyn Master Classes

When I was a student at NYU or Mannes, you felt like you won the lottery if you were chosen to sing for a Master Class! Over time, I have presented numerous Master Classes in Song Interpretation, Audition Preparation, The Business of Opera, The Business of Musical Theatre, general vocal technique, and dramatic coachings.

Recipe for Crossover includes an hour-long concert by me and then a Master Class which can include any repertoire ranging from Art Song to Opera Aria to Musical Theatre.

Broadway Your Way is a Master Class of students singing strictly from the Musical Theatre canon.

Excellent for University or High School Music or Theatre Departments, Independent Musical Theatre Schools, and Vocal Competitions, each Master Class is slightly different, customized to your needs and budget. Contact me at joyhermalyn@gmail.com for rates and dates!
